Author, Wallace J. Miles, had a dream when he was four-years-old, and that dream has helped define the path of his life thus far. He set out on a path to accomplish that dream even though no one believed it was for him. Wallace achieved academic excellence, excelled in sports, rose from walk-on kicker to a record-breaking college receiver, and earned the opportunity to compete in the NFL along the way.

He earned his Electrical Engineering degree from the illustrious North Carolina A&T State University along the same way. Wallace played in the NFL and the CFL (Canadian Football League), where he won a Grey Cup Championship with the Edmonton Eskimos. Now, he has found success again in the construction industry, where he utilizes old skills as the foundation to achieve new dreams.

SIGNATURE SPEAKING TOPICS

FOUNDATION BUILDING

We all have a story that starts somewhere and it all leads back to our foundation. Wallace helps identify the core of a person and how it could affect them positively. He able to assist with creating a plan that will allow them to build where they are with what they have. The celebration in the light, comes from all the work done in the shadows.

UNDERRATED

The growth we want comes in the chase. The "who" is YOU! The "what" is the target of your heart. Look at the clock, the "when" is right now. The "where" is in the place you stand. The "why," that is, the source that gives you the energy to show up every day and to take a chance to grow closer to the greatest version of YOU!

UNDERSTANDING YOUR DECISIONS

You are living your past decisions. Some were good and some were not so good. However, they have shaped your future. Wallace teaches about the importance of decision making and breaks down the mindset that will elevate one's future success. As Usain Bolt used to tear down the track to one of his nine gold medals, he was teaching us the phases to mastering all the areas of our lives. We have to line up in a place or a lane that we are drawn to. Lining up in someone else's lane to someone else's dream does not bode well for the long run. We have no control of who we are born. We have no control of where we come out, but we do have the power to dictate where we go.
