Dr. Lisa, The Educator

As a survivor of Domestic Violence, I bring my voice with facts, myths, and my life. Love shouldn't hurt but for many it does. It has been my passion and pleasure to share this information with the world. So far, mankind has fallen from the Father and they are yet to realize how God designed the order of things. I often hear unfortunate believers and non-believers say that it's a spirit that causes mankind to abuse others; some even say it's a spirit that allows it. Domestic Violence is illegal, little do they know that it's a forbidden sin according to the principles of God. A pattern has continued throughout our communities especially in our churches which have caused DOUBLE JEOPARDY abuse in our homes, then abuse in the church. We must bring an awakening to this generation that we must get this right, or it will continue to tear down the moral fabric of the world that God created.
